

Away

Away...

From the concept of wrong doing and right doing there's a place,

I'll meet you there

Away... Where there's no one to stop us,

And remind us our limits, I'll hug you there Away...

Where there will be birds to sing for us,

And trees to dance for us, I'll marry you there Away...

Where the sky will be covered with stars,

But the moon will hide itself because of thine beauty,

I'll kiss you there

Away..... From this selfish world, where I can put my hand on yours

And live till the divine's angel calls us, I'll love you there
